DR. W. KOEHLER,
Surgical & Mechanical Dentist,
Deutscher Zahnarzt,
HAVING RECEIVED A NEW SUPPLY OF DENTAL Instruments, I would hereto before, take pleasure in stating to my patrons and to the public generally, that I am prepared to perform all operations belonging to the Dental Department, by the most improved methods, in the most scientific and workmanlike manner.
I also take this opportunity to thank the citizens of Portland and vicinity for their liberal patronage during my residence in this city, and hope, by doing my work not only in conformity to their most economical interests, but also in a style of workmanship not surpassed by any other Dentist in the country, to make it to their return to maintain your confidence.
ARTIFICIAL TEETH, in the newest and most improved methods, constructed on the following materials:
GOLD, PLATINA, SILVER, RUBBER, AMBER, or CELLULITE BASE,
at the option of the Patient.
The Extraction of Teeth by his method is new to any other, as the patient need not undergo the unpleasant, if not dangerous state of inhaling Chloroform, but will have his teeth extracted without that horrid pain the generality of patients in this latitude endure—suffering.
All operations warranted to give satisfaction, or no charge will be made.
Special attention paid to the regulation of children's teeth.
Difficult Dental Operations particularly solicited.
Ladies wishing to call at their residences if desired.
References of Physicians and Families given at the Office.
Prices will be reasonable in all cases.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 10, 1863

No flag but the OLD Flag—the Red, White and Blue. With the stars of a Union unbroken and true! Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave, Whose blood bought it—the banner your valor must save

The News.

No dispatch this morning, and we find no later news of interest in the California papers received last night. Legal Tender notes were selling at 65 cents on the 2d of June, gold being then worth 47 per cent. premium in New York, and not 74 as reported here by telegraph the other day.

Gen. Fremont, according to the Evening Post, has been appointed President of the Pacific Railroad, Eastern Division.

A Rio Janeiro correspondent to the New York papers, states that the Brazilian authorities have displaced the commander at Fernando de Noranha for allowing the Alabama to commit depredations in Brazilian waters. The new commander who was sent to the island, protested against the Alabama remaining there, and ordered her to leave in a few hours. Unfortunately he had no vessel of war to enforce his orders. Every satisfaction in the power of the Brazilian authorities has been tendered to the American Consul. It was supposed at Pernambuco that the Alabama sailed south on the 29th of April.

Mr. Cole's Nomination.

Dr. Henry's organ at Salem finds fault with our first notice of Mr. Cole, but as we are under no special obligations to ask or take advice from that unprincipled source, we are not disturbed by its self-conceit or malice. We simply stated what was well known to be true, as to Mr. Cole, up to the time that he became a Democratic candidate, and we were and still are astonished that he should expect to get the votes of Secessionists, or of the Copperheads, if he is sincere in his professions. Nor can we see how he can as a patriot oppose a Union nomination, made in good faith, when his opposition may divide and weaken the Union strength of the Territory. The Walla Walla Statesman, as Cole's apologist, says he is a Union Democrat and nothing else, and thinks we have done him injustice. If so, we regret it, but we do not see how he can expect the support of real Union men regardless of party, when he seeks and accepts a party nomination, and knows that he is regarded as the candidate of Secessionists, in part at least. True, he claims that Mr. Raynor's nomination was secured by the Henry or office-holder's faction, and is seeking to take advantage of the odium which such a report casts upon Mr. Raynor, and doubtless he will win many votes by it, if he makes the people believe it. We are assured, however, by Mr. R. and by many members of the Convention that this pretence is entirely without foundation, and does great injustice and wrong to the Union candidate. His nomination was not secured or accomplished by the Federal officials, nor is he under any obligations or pledges to them of any sort whatever. He is simply the Union Candidate, and we hope all Union men will vote for him, without being influenced by the story of his Federal complicity—an unworthy device, we fear, of an unscrupulous opposition for the purpose of defeating him, and, even if Cole is elected professing Union sentiments, of enabling the Peace Democracy to glory in a victory to which they in part have contributed.

The Seceders on Secession.—The upper branch of the rebel Congress has passed a bill for organizing a Supreme Court, which recognizes the judiciary of the respective States as the ultimate resort for all actions within their limits, except those which relate to the General Agency in its connection with foreign Governments. This is one application of the doctrine of secession. But it seems there was a great want of unanimity in adopting it, and the action of the House is still uncertain. A Richmond correspondent of a Chattanooga paper says of the discussion in the Senate:

Some twenty-five or thirty speeches were made during the debate, but they have not been published—scarcely glanced at by the Richmond press. Very strange political doctrines were elicited during the discussion—very remarkable conceptions of the nature of the governmental structure of these States were delivered. Among them, this one, by a distinguished Senator: 'No State had a right to secede, and if one seceded hereafter, he was in favor of forcing her back with the bayonet'—or words to that effect.

Priest's Rapids.—The steamer Cascadilla has taken up a load of goods to Priest's Rapids for the Columbia river mines. She is expected to run regularly. New mines have been discovered about twelve miles below the rapids, and are said to yield from $10 to $15 per day.

Of Course.—The Walla Walla Statesman announces that the mass convention which was called at that place, will not be held: it also adopts the nomination of Cole.

A child of John Crosby, Jacksonville, two years old, fell down a well twenty-two feet deep, and was drowned before it could be rescued.

Oyster Bed.—A new and rich oyster bed has been discovered at Aquina Bay, on the coast, about forty-five miles from Corvallis.

W. B. Daniels has accepted the appointment of Secretary of Idaho.

Gen. Burnside's Late Order.—Some of the "peace" organs in the North are denouncing Gen. Burnside's recent order relative to traitors and treason-talkers and sympathizers as "arbitrary" and "tyrannical." They think it outrageous that the "liberty of the citizen" to plot against his country and give "aid and comfort" to its enemies, should be thus summarily abridged! They have no words to express their righteous abhorrence of this attempt to "inaugurate despotism" in a free country.

But the Louisville Journal, published within the territory covered by the Order, takes issue with those pusillanimous champions of "Constitutional rights." That paper heartily approves the course of Gen. B., and says that had this rigorous policy been adopted months ago, the rebellion would have been much nearer its end than it now is.

This looks like work in earnest, for Gen. Burnside is not in the habit of issuing orders for mere effect. It has been too long permitted that rebel sympathizers should remain among us to act, by signs and convey information to our country's enemies by such well arranged system of communication that it is almost impossible to detect and break them up. Neither should they be allowed to poison the air with their foul utterances of treason if they do not like the Government which protects them, let them leave for more congenial climes, but while they are amenable to the laws of the United States they should be made to know that treason will not be tolerated. Gen. Burnside's order is comprehensive: it was needed months ago; and under its enforcement we hope to see the most salutary effects.

We may expect to see the Journal denounced by the "peace" fraternity as a "black republican" and "abolition" sheet. We may expect to see it read out of the "Constitutional" party. It has become shockingly heterodox. It believes in hurting rebels. It believed in expelling, if not hanging, spies and informers. It believes in purifying the air of "the foul utterances of treason."

And "plain people," who care more for their country than they do for Constitutional etiquette, who believe in calling crimes by their right names and punishing their authors whenever and wherever found, will agree with it. One of the great obstacles to success thus far has been the leniency of the Government toward secret enemies. Spies and informers have enjoyed an immunity from punishment never before witnessed in the history of war. They have been permitted to prosecute their hellish mission under the very eyes of the Federal authorities. They have been allowed to "ply their vocation" with none to molest or make them afraid. They have had access to the secret councils of Cabinet Ministers, and free ingress to the headquarters of commanding Generals. Washington has swarmed with them. The Departments have reeked with them. Even the White House has been polluted by their foul presence. They have been permitted to keep up a system of correspondence with the rebel authorities within our military lines, and to use the protection of our Government to destroy it.

Arrests have been made. The guilty parties have been more than once caught in the act of spying our movements and giving information to the enemy; but, so far as we know, not a single example has been made—not a single spy or informer has been hung or shot!

Gen. Burnside promises to inaugurate a more rigorous policy. We trust he will have the nerve to carry it into effect. Let us see if we have not at least one General who dares be just, even at the risk of being called cruel.—Albany Journal.

Mr. Toucey Behind the Times.—At the recent great Union meeting in New York, Mr. John Van Buren paid his respects as follows, to a politician who lately came out for a moment from that obscurity, from which no patriotic impulse could draw him in the last two eventful years:

There was a very extensive political discussion in Connecticut not very long ago, during the pendency of the election. Mr. Isaac Toucey, who had been a member of the Administration of Mr. Buchanan, undertook to enlighten his political friends in regard to the issues involved in that canvass, and he told us that the difficulty was that they would deprecate the policy of Mr. Buchanan. He said he became a member of that Administration; that if they had adhered to the policy of Mr. Buchanan they would never have been engaged in this war. Well, now, Mr. Buchanan's Administration at its close was composed of John A. Dix, Joseph Holt, Edward M. Stanton, and Mr. Toucey, and it is quite as likely that the three first gentlemen are right in sustaining the Government as Mr. Toucey is in harping about what ought to have been done two years ago and carping at what has been done since.

The difficulty with these gentlemen who tell us what ought to have been done two years ago is that they do us no good. The question is, what is to be done now? Mr. Toucey has been withdrawn from public life for a considerable time, and, when this Connecticut sunset down behind the Hartford hill and absolutely refused to shine for two years, what were we to do who were living in total darkness? Were we to blame if, having no light except that which broke from the flashes of the rebel cannon at Fort Sumter, we fired back at those who fired to rob us? And what are we to do now between this and the next Presidential election? Suppose I should concede that Toucey ought to be the next President in March, 1865; what are we to do in the meantime? What are we to do while we have Abraham for our father, when we wait for the second coming of Christ? It does not answer to tell us what ought to have been done long ago or what is going to be done in the future. The interesting inquiry for this generation is, what they are going to do now. Now there is but one thing to do—that is to fight.

A Secessionist Rebuked.—The Shasta Courier of May 30th, relates the following case of wholesome discipline administered to a follower of Jeff. Davis:

The other day, at Watson Gulch, in the southern part of this county, a violent secessionist, by the name of Griffin, commenced cursing the Administration, Abe Lincln, and denouncing the war and all Union men, when a true Union man, named James Drew, formerly from New Hampshire, after enduring all the abuse he could stand from the traitor's lips, told him he must stop talking in that manner in his presence. But Secess thought he could whip about five to one, and he kept on with his slang, when Drew drew off and knocked him down, and finally, after a scrimmage, succeeded in compelling him to keep a civil tongue in his head. The time has come when these worshippers of the traitor Davis will not be allowed to insult the ear of Union men with impunity, and if the officers do not enforce the law against this class of persons, the people will resent the insult in the shortest manner possible.

Granite City Mines.—All the miners in this district are at work, and many of them are taking out large quantities of dust. Good miners command $5 per day, and ordinary hands get $4. These mines are within three days' travel of the Umatilla Landing.

A Spicy Reply.—About two months ago, as was stated in the Salt Union at that time, a large meeting was held in the Tabernacle, at Salt Lake City, at which Brigham Young presided, the purpose of which was to force the Governor and Associate Justices of Utah to leave the Territory. A Committee of three was appointed to wait upon the above named officers and report the action of the meeting. They first proceeded to the Executive mansion, where Judge Thomas J. Drake resided, and informed him and the Governor Hurling that "the Mormons did not like them, and wished them to get away from the Territory as soon as possible." The Judge listened patiently until the Committee concluded, and then getting between them and the door, replied as follows:

"The communications you have made are of some importance, as they are intended to affect me. I desire to say something before you go. It is no small thing to request a citizen to leave a country. Are you aware of the magnitude of the business you have undertaken? I deny that you have any cause for such conduct toward me. I am an American citizen, and have a right to go to any part of the Republic. I have a right to petition or ask the Government to amend the laws, or to pass laws. You, Taylor and Pratt, are men of experience, and reputed to be men of learning, and ought to know better than to insult a man by such means. It is mean and contemptible. On your part, Taylor, as a foreigner, it is impudence unequalled. You, Pratt, a citizen, should know better than to trample on the rights of a citizen by performing such a dirty enterprise. Your resolutions are false, and the man who drafted them knows them to be so. I understand that Brigham Young, in the meeting in the Tabernacle, called me a fool, and a tool of the Government. [Here Taylor admitted that Young did say so.] Go back to Brigham Young, your master—that embodiment of sin, shame and disgust—and tell him that I either feel him, nor love him, nor hate him, but that I utterly despise him.—Tell him, whose tools and tricksters you are, that I did not come here by his permission, and that I will not go away at his desire, or by his direction. I have given no cause of offense to any one. I have not entered a Mormon's house since I came to Utah Territory. Your wives and daughters have not been disturbed by me, and I have not even looked upon your concubines and lewd women. I am no skulk from the punishment of crime. I tell you, that if you, or the man that you so faithfully serve, attempt to interfere with my lawful business, you will meet with trouble of a character you do not expect. A horse thief, or a murderer has, when arrested, a right to speak in Court; and unless in such capacity, and under such circumstances, never do you dare to speak to me again."

The Perils of Blockade Runners.—At intervals there is a word of candid confession from John Bull. While his "leading journals" are loud in their denunciations of "ineffective blockades," and while Mason and Slidell falsify the record of naval seizures by insisting that the Southern ports are not strictly sealed, Earl Russell says that our vessels are doing all that can reasonably be required of any fleet on similar service, and hapless British sea captains who have been caught, acknowledge with emotion that the detestible "Yankees" have literally carried too many guns for them to resist.

The latest confession of the kind appears in the Edinburg Scotsman. A blockade-runner who succeeded in getting into Charleston writes home to say that although he got through by the aid of the guns of Fort Beauregard, his vessel was sharply chased up to the very mouths of the rebel cannon and that out of six vessels which attempted to run the blockade of Charleston on the 27th and 28th of January, only three got in. One of the other three was the Princess Royal, whose capture has made a sore spot in the rebel heart.

Here is a single passage from the letter of this Anglo-rebel blockade-runner:

A blinding flash and stunning report, followed by the peculiar half-scream, half-roar of a shell as it flew overhead, broke the stillness of the night. This shell had been fired from a gunboat ahead, and directly in the track of the T——e, whose presence has been betrayed by the escape of some sparks from her funnel.

In a moment the surface of the sea was illuminated by the meteor like flash of innumerable rockets, while as many blue lights cast a sickly glare over the scene. It revealed for a moment almost every vessel of the blockading fleet clearly visible, as it did it, too, the hopeless little L——e in their midst. While this had been taking place, however, the engineers had weighed down the safety-valves, shut off the feed pipe and piled up the furnaces with r——fill and turpentine, and the captain and pilot having, thanks to the Yankee illumination, discerned their enemy's whereabouts, had headed the T——e clear of them, and she quivered in every plate as she fairly flew on her way under the immense pressure of steam.

The writer says that nothing but the fire from Fort Beauregard upon our right flank blockading vessels saved the "neutral" steamer.

Notice.

A. J. BUTLER,

Pioneer Hatter,

WOULD RESPECTFULLY call the attention of the public generally, and to those of the citizens of Portland particularly, that he DOES NOT deal in Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, &c., &c., but he does confine to inform them that he is a Legitimate Practical Hatter,

and has served a regular apprenticeship to become so. We deal in nothing but

HATS AND CAPS,

and have them in

Every Variety, Style, Color, Shape & Price

to be found in a first class Hatter's Store.

In selling a gentleman a Hat, we do not permit him to wear the same, (if he so desire,) out of our establishment until the pressing process have been completed, and the Hat, itself Hat, until it has been moulded and shaped to suit the particular formation of his head.

We do not ask a person to purchase, expecting to fall in love with the original price we put upon our Hats, ONE PRICE is a abatement is our way of doing business.

That principle being universally observed we solicit the patronage of the public generally.

A. J. BUTLER,

JOHN R. SIMS,

MANUFACTURER OF

Fire-Proof Doors and Shutters, BANK VAULTS,

Gratings, Cemetery Railing, Balconies, &c.

No. 6 IRON STREET,
Between Front and Davis, Washington and Jackson, San Francisco, Cal.

ALL ORDERS from the interior of Oregon and Washington Territory, or any place on the Pacific coast, will be attended to with punctuality and despatch.

MR. SIMS appreciates the past liberal patronage of his friends, and trusts he may continue to merit it in the future. For the information of strangers, he would say that he feels confident that his experience in this particular calling to surpass that of any other on the coast, which his superior work, sent to almost every town in California, Oregon, Victoria, and the Sandwich Islands, and to be seen on some of the best buildings in San Francisco, fully attest.

Also—A very large lot of second hand Shutters, of various dimensions, all for sale at very low rates.

N. B.—M. E. H. BURTON, of Portland, will make contracts for Iron Work in my name.

Columbia River Coal.—Messrs. Richard Geoghegan & Co., of the Columbia River Coal Company, have brought a quantity of coal from the mines near the Cascades, for the purpose of testing it at the Gas Works and the foundries. A portion of it was used at Jones, Glow & Co.'s Foundery and the trial was very satisfactory, giving a great heat and proving itself good for use in manufacturing iron. A trial of it is to be made at the Gas Works, at 12 o'clock, this day.

The mines are two and a half miles above the Cascades, and easily accessible from the river, and a railroad on an inclined plain is proposed to be built to them. The vein runs towards of a hundred feet in width, and at the depth now reached, (30 feet), from one to fifteen inches thick, growing thicker as they go in. The owners believe that they have not yet reached the main bed.

This discovery will be of great benefit to the Dalles and Deschutes, where wood is scarce, and the saving as a fuel is calculated to be about one-half. Samples of the coal are on exhibition at the stores of W. B. Mead & Co. and D. W. Williams, Front street.

Near the same place are indications of rich beds of iron ore, and under the seam of coal a deep bed of fire clay has been found, which will also prove of great value, being of good quality.

Circuit Court.—Considerable business was transacted in this Court yesterday. A number of judgments were had by default, motions and answers to complaint filed, and demurrer argued. The Court adjourned until nine o'clock this morning.

Returned.—The National Troupe of Glass Blowers returned to this city, yesterday afternoon, from the Dalles, en route to California overland. We did not learn whether they intend exhibiting here again or not.

The Loyal Women.—The Newburyport Herald addresses the truly loyal women of the country—not those who take part in public meetings, and who are more conspicuous for words than for good deeds—as follows:

And it is a shame that while indebtedness abroad is draining our treasuries, and foreign treachery and trickery are draining the veins of our men in the field and in the navy—self-exiled and daily subjected to sufferings and privations which no amount of money would tempt them to meet—we say that it is a shame that under such circumstances the women of the loyal States still flaunt in foreign fabrics and sparkle in foreign jewelry. The country demands intervention, and intervention by discreet wives and daughters; and only outlandish bucksters, monopolists and intriguers will object, and when fairly inaugurated the clouds will break.

It is but a few days since $1,600,000 in gold or its equivalent was sent to Europe in a single steamer; and a few days before a little short of $1,000,000 took the same direction; and as it is, to a greater or lesser extent, with every steamer. Now, why should not these sums remain at home? Why should not the current change its course, and, instead of sending gold out of the country, have it flowing in upon us from Europe? The answer is obvious to every one. A great debt is owed in France and England, and because we will have their nice broadcloths, elegant silks, satins, laces and a hundred other articles which we can dispense with, and save our money. But there is a worse feature in these war times than is ordinarily seen in large importations. When the $1,600,000 was sent to London, gold was at a premium of seventy cents. It cost then, here, in Boston or New York, $1,129,000 as premium to buy the gold, so that the shipment stood the debtor $2,720,000 before it left the wharf. With the other expenses incident, the party thus remitting was subject to a loss of probably not a dollar less than seventy-five per cent., to enable him to pay an honest debt, at the rate of a hundred cents on the dollar. This, then, is the principal working of foreign indebtedness—in other words, of large importations.

Emigration to the Pacific States.—Several steamboats will leave St. Louis on Saturday, 9th May, with a very large amount of freight and hundreds of passengers on their way to Fort Benton, on the Upper Missouri; thence they will take the mountain road opened by Captain Mullan, of the army, from Fort Benton to Walla Walla, and make new homes in the fertile valleys and auriferous districts which have recently been developed in the new, virgin, and vigorous territories of Idaho and Washington. P. Chouteau, Jr., and company, and other parties, will send a number of steamers up.—St. Louis Republican.

Boise Mines.—The Mountaineer publishes the following letter from W. H. Northrop, formerly of Portland, now at Bannock City:

Bannock City, May 24, 1863.

I was so fortunate last week as to procure an interest in a claim of 2,100 feet on Moore's creek, located at the junction of Elk creek. By the prospect my fortune is made—7 cents to $10 to the pan. We took out last week (being the first since opened) $1,600, with five men at work. As we are now opening other sites on the creek, we employ some 30 men, which of course makes our expenses very heavy. I would not be surprised next month if we realize 100 ounces a day, for we are now on the lead.

Returning Emigrants.—Mr. Mossman informs the Walla Walla Statesman that, while coming in from Auburn last week, he met a train of emigrants, consisting of seven wagons en route for Iowa. These emigrants crossed the plains last season, and settled in the Grand Ronde valley. This is rather reversing the order of things. They had evidently come to the conclusion that the gold in this country could not be had without labor.

New Military Company.—An infantry company has been organized at Eugene City, and A. S. Patterson elected Captain.

R. A. Chapter No. 3.—A Regular Communication of R. A. Chapter No. 3 will be held on Thursday evening, June 11th, at 7½ o'clock.

DR. D. JAYNES'
EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from underlying and leading to CONSUMPTION, many of whom might be saved, were they only aware that they should be allowed to resist some of the first symptoms of disease, and take such means in remedying complaints which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat,

Operates immediately upon the Disease,
BURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by operating regularly in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the many in the possession of the proprietors.

From a Physician of Boston, Mass.

DR. D. JAYNE—Having for many years used your EXPECTORANT and SANATIVE PILLS in my practice, and found them to be all you recommend them, I cheerfully add my testimony to their virtues. I have found them a safe and speedy cure, until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it a few days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.

I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.

I remain, my dear Doctor, with esteem, your servant and friend, J. E. MONTE.

WINFIELD TUSCARAWAS CO. O., May 31, 1860.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been given beyond the hope of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well. J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co. Pa., July 21, 1863.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true. MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates, and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr D Jayne and Sons' Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC, which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

IMPROVED TIGHT-STITCH
FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES

Are unsurpassed by any for beauty, simplicity of construction and efficiency in working, and will do

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money, but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

LADD & WEBSTER'S

use a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.

They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.

Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea for three days. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of internally, in raising from bed and sight, it will not only cure the pain but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your head pierces you with a sick feeling, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cancer, Sore Mouth or Throat apply the Pain Panacea freely to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have a Canker, or a colored stain on the skin, take a dose of Pain Panacea three times a day, and then bathe the part with it freely, and the stain will disappear.

If you have a Fever Sore, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and let a piece of cloth saturated with it be kept on the sore most of the time.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, use the Pain Panacea internally and externally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea, it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Love in Age.

O love that looked through youthful eyes,
And tinged the earth with light for
Spread once each lofty gorgeous dyes
Object to contrast under

Love, sweet in youth, as sweet in age,
The same old charming story,
While Admiration in Paradise
When Eve shone in her glory

Old as the world, young as to days
Love, earth's divinest puzzle,
For God is love, then hear me pray
And make my true confession

I love—the name like music thrills,
All thoughts emotion, feelings
I clinch life's everlasting hills
Fair Beulah's final revealing.

I love, God make me good and true,
As she is pure and tender
Earth wears a crown for love true
Enrobed in love's soft splendor

"THERE'S WORSE IN TOWN"—A famous Texan Ranger, who is now enjoying his otium cum dignitate across the Bay, is the hero of a practical joke, which is told with considerable gusto by his friends. It seems that he was riding past the house of Colonel D——, a few days since, and was hailed by the latter personage, who invited him in to test a fine quality of whisky. The Ranger admitted his weakness, tied his animal and entered his friend's house.

"Martha," said Colonel D—— to his daughter, when the Texan entered, "bring me that bottle of good whisky."

Martha returned to the room in a few minutes, and placing the bottle and tumblers on the table, left the two old fogies to hob-nob alone.

"Now, Colonel," said Colonel D—— to his visitor, "I wish you to taste that whisky and tell me what you think of it."

The Texan poured some five fingers of the liquor into his tumbler and hid it under his vest with evident satisfaction.

"Well, Colonel," said the host, "what do you think of that?"

"Oh, it will do," he replied, "there's worse in town."

About this time Martha returned, and, on removing the bottle, discovered that she had made a mistake, and that the visitor had bolted off a large glass of bay rum instead of whisky. The Texan thought over the matter awhile and quietly said

"I thought there was a peculiar taste about it; but then I have had such little experience in first class liquors, that I was afraid to show my ignorance by saying anything about it."

Since that time, bay rum is quite a popular article in the fashionable saloons of Oakland.—S F Call.

THE YANKEE AT THE COURT BALL—A worthy citizen of Boston was desirous of being present at a royal ball, but lacked the costume. Military uniform or court dress was then, as now, indispensable; and it was too late to get either. His more fortunate friends, "in full rig," took leave of him at his lodgings, with many expressions of regret that he could not accompany them. No sooner were they out of the house than he determined that he would at any rate try the experiment. Within an hour he made his appearance at the door of the Throne Rooms at Versailles, arrayed in all the glory of his blue coat, white vest and nankeen trousers. Here the horrified master of ceremonies stopped him, and pointing to his nankeens, endeavored, by word and sign, to convince him that his dress was not comme il faut, and he must retire.

"Dress! dress!" said the traveler; "not pass! not enter! Why, at is the same dress I always wear in the General Court at Boston!"

No sooner were the words uttered than the doors flew open, and the obsequious valet, "booing and booing," preceded him, and announced in a loud voice, "Monsieur le Generale Court de Boston!" to the infinite amazement of his American friends, and the great delight of the newly made General.

Two Dutchmen, who built and used in common a small bridge over a small stream which ran through their farms, had a dispute concerning certain repairs which it required; after a time one of them declined to bear any portion of the expense necessary to the purchase of two or three new planks. Finally, the aggrieved party went to the neighboring lawyer, and placing ten dollars in his hand, said, "I'll give you all dis moneys if you'll make Hans do justice mit de bridge."

"How much will it cost to repair the bridge?" asked the honest counselor of the determined litigant.

"Well, den, not more ash five tollar," replied the Dutchman.

"Very well," said the lawyer, pocketing one of the notes and giving him the other, "take this and go and get the bridge repaired; it is the best course you can take."

"Vaaw," said the Dutchman, slowly, "y-a-a-w; dat ish more better as to quarrel mit Hans," but as he went along home, he shook his head frequently, as if unable after all quite clearly to see how he had gained anything by going to law.

A lady having accidentally broken her smelling bottle, her husband, who was very petulant, said to her "I declare, my dear, everything that belongs to you is more or less, broken."

"True," replied the lady; "even you are a little cracked."

"I'll teach you to play pitch and toss? I'll log you for an hour, I will." "Father," instantly replied the incorrigible, as he balanced a penny on his thumb and finger, "I'll toss you to make it two hours or nothing."

A Chicago man, who had not been out of the city for years, fainted away in the pure air of Rock Prairie. He was only resuscitated by putting a dead fish to his nose, when he slowly revived, exclaiming, "That's good, it smells like home."

A Judge said to a toper on trial for drunkenness: "Prisoner, you have heard the complaint for habitual drunkenness; what have you to say in your defence?" Nothing, please your honor, but habitual thirst."

It is no misfortune for a nice young lady to lose her good name, if a nice young gentleman give her a better.

GETTING UP IN THE WORLD—Mr. James Glaisher, the scientific aeronaut, took his first Spring voyage in the upper air on the last day of March, setting out from Sydenham Crystal Palace near London. He has communicated to the English newspapers a full account of the journey. He ascended to a height of four and a half miles, where he found the temperature just at zero of Fahrenheit's scale. Passing the balloon made the first mile in nine minutes, the second in ten, and the third in nine. As ballooning may presently become a fashionable way of getting a little fresh air, a few notes of Mr Glaisher's experience will not be unwelcome to the enterprising reader. It is interesting to know, for instance, that at heights greater than three miles, the sun's image was seen reflected in water. At four miles, the pulse beats ninety eight in a minute, against seventy-six beats on the ground. The highest you get the bluer is the sky, at the greatest height it has to the observer the hue of dark Prussian blue. As you near the four mile mark, the heart beats quickly and loudly, and the warn lady balloonists to provide themselves with pearl powder, and other aids to the complexion. At a height of exceeding three miles the face gets blue. At four miles, suffocation formed instantly, and Mr Glaisher was forced to break it to get water for his wet bulb thermometer.

A POLISH PARRIOT—The following were the words exchanged between the Russian General Chruszczew and Casimir Bohdanowicz, one of the Polish insurgents, who had been made prisoner, and was about to be put to death:

"Ask pardon—you will be pardoned."

"No."

"You are young."

"The cause I serve is an old one."

"Think of your mother."

"My mother would be ashamed of me, were I to bend."

Five minutes after he was no more.

To plunge a young lady six fathoms deep in happiness, give her two canary birds, half a dozen moon beams, twelve yards of silk, an ice cream, several rosebuds, a squeeze of the hand, and the promise of a new bonnet. If she don't melt, it will be because she can't.

SOLDIERS SHOULD VOTE—Attorney General Daniel S. Dickinson, of New York, answers Gov Seymour with an opinion that the bill authorizing the soldiers to vote by proxy is not only within the spirit but within the actual letter of the Constitution. Nevertheless Gov Seymour vetoes the bill on a plea of unconstitutionality, he does not trust the eighty thousand soldiers in votes, and he means to see to it that they are disfranchised.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that the hotel keepers who sell wines and liquors must take out a liquor dealer's license in addition to their license as hotel keepers. This comes hard on the small tavern keepers.

Monitors and rams are all very well as auxiliaries, but let not the moral of the Charleston fight be lost sight of, viz, that an effectual barricade of the channel by timber, chains, or other temporary expedients, within short range of powerful batteries, is the best protection, as it is by far the cheapest, that can be devised.

The "hydraulic" experiments in the exploration of bayous, the construction of canals and other operations to reach the rear of Vicksburg, which have all come to nought, have cost the government more than $20,000,000.

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all net profits (less $600) derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business, but no farmer, merchant, mechanic or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor as so much expense from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, so that on the evening of December 31st, 1862, everybody should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year. And as many sources of income, such as Dividends on Railroad Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks, interest, &c., (they having already paid the income tax,) are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income, that there may be no dispute with the Assessor.

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their Dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may outside of his business spend all and even more than his profits in the business, nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses consume it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863, in forty sums due and unpaid for thirty days after the 30th June as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.
